

Chief Executive Officer

The City of Oshawa with a population of approximately 160,000, just east of the City of Toronto, is the largest municipality in the area. Oshawa Public Libraries was established 150 years ago and is an exciting, vibrant community focus and service.

With the forthcoming retirement of the incumbent, the Oshawa Public Library Board is seeking applications from interested, experienced individuals for the position of Chief Executive Officer. Reporting directly to the Board, the Chief Executive Officer will provide leadership and direction to a staff of 146 in four branches with an annual budget of approximately $9 million.

The Board is looking for an individual that can build on past successes while bringing future endeavours to a successful conclusion. Long term financial sustainability, best practices, new business models, and organizational engagement are but a few of the challenges offered. Emerging trends and changes in technology add to the complexity of this position in delivering the highest calibre of services to the community.

The successful candidate is expected to be a strong, politically astute leader of management and change to guide the organization through the challenges of today and tomorrow.

The Board is looking for an experienced senior executive in a medium to large public library system with an undergraduate university degree. A Master's Degree in Library and Information Science or Business Administration will be considered an asset.

To explore this opportunity further, please submit your resume, with covering introductory letter, by 4:00 p.m. Friday, September 19, 2014 to:
